

PROCLAMATION

Adair County Public Safety Telecommunications Week

WHEREAS, the safety, security, and well-being of the citizens of Adair County depend in large part on the prompt, efficient, and professional response of emergency services; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators are the first and most critical point of contact for individuals experiencing emergencies, providing calm, clear, and lifesaving communication during moments of crisis; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated professionals serve as the vital link between the public and emergency responders, coordinating police, fire, and medical services with precision, compassion, and unwavering commitment; and

WHEREAS, the Adair County 911 Telecommunicators demonstrate exceptional skill, resilience, and professionalism in the face of high-pressure situations, often serving unseen yet indispensable roles in protecting lives and property; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper to recognize the dedication and service of those currently serving as Adair County 911 Telecommunicators:

Stephen Baker, Chloe Bradley, Ashley Buster, Laura Coffey, Skylar Coomer, Skylar Hare, Grant Loy, Fredia Melton, Tyler Moore, Derrick Murphy, Dustin Posey, Krystal Redmon, Jeramy Stearns, and Monica Tucker; and

WHEREAS, we also honor and express our deep gratitude to those telecommunicators who have faithfully served Adair County in years past, whose contributions have helped build and strengthen the foundation of emergency communications services in our community; and

WHEREAS, during Public Safety Telecommunications Week, we pause to recognize the vital contributions of these professionals and to commend their dedication to public service;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that I, Adair County Judge Executive Larry Russell Bryant, do hereby designate it Public Safety Telecommunications Week in Adair County and call upon all citizens to recognize and honor the commitment, service, and sacrifice of our 911 Telecommunicators.

BE IT FURTHER PROCLAIMED that we extend our sincere appreciation to all past and present telecommunicators for their tireless efforts and invaluable service to the people of Adair County.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands this 15th day of April, 2026.

Larry Russell Bryant
Adair County Judge Executive
